

WORDS OF LIFE

DAILY TRUST

In Matthew 6:11 Jesus said, “Give us today our daily bread.” I’ve always tried to remind myself that Jesus didn’t pray, “Give us today our weekly bread” or “Give us today our monthly or yearly bread.” In essence, you don’t need to worry about tomorrow until tomorrow. Worrying ahead only distracts us from the steps God has for us to take today.

For instance, you don’t need to stress about the future steps necessary to make your spiritual walk what it needs to be. Focus on what you can do today. Pray that the Spirit will help you make wise choices today and do what needs to be done today; and then pray again tomorrow for what you need tomorrow. You can simply be thankful for what God provides for you today, saying, “Thank you God for today’s food, today’s power, today’s new thought pattern.”

God wants us to trust Him one day at a time. That’s why he said this in Matthew 6:34, “Therefore do not be anxious about tomorrow, for tomorrow will be anxious for itself. Sufficient for the day is its own trouble.” The Message version reads it like this: “Give your entire attention to what God is doing right now, and don’t get worked up about what may or may not happen tomorrow. God will help you deal with whatever hard things come up when the time comes.” Isn’t that a relief? Isn’t that great news?

Daily trust is simply trusting God one day at a time because that frees you from worry and brings true peace.

-Gregg
